

JW Marriott Hotel Berlin

The Hotel

Occupying a prime location on Potsdamer Platz in the heart of the city between Kurfürstendamm and the Brandenburg Gate, JW Marriott Hotel Berlin is one of the capital's largest event hotels. An homage to the Roaring '20s, the architectural style impresses with its clever combination of classical ambience and state-of-the-art infrastructure.

Guestrooms and Suites

A total of 505 elegantly furnished rooms including 66 suites, among them ten exclusive suites in the secured suite tower. All rooms feature TV with German and international channels, air conditioning with individual climate control, laptop-sized room safe and minibar.

Dining

The hotel features an all-day-dining restaurant The Market, offering a great buffet variety with fresh local offerings and great capacity for bigger groups, while the restaurant Flavors is your a-la-carte restaurant serving local favorites in more intimate surroundings. Finally the Bar26 sends you back in the time of the Roaring 1920s with your favorite spirits and cocktails.

Location

Located in the proximity of Kurfürstendamm, the main commercial hub of what was pre-unification West Berlin, our hotel is just a short walk away from the city's main attractions. Take a stroll to The Brandenburg Gate, Sony Center or the historic Reichstag building for a sneak peek into Berlin's turbulent past.

Meetings and Events

With our conference facilities, we are able to host up to 5,500 people. The hotel features two large ballrooms with stages (one of them is able to accommodate up to 3,200 people), additional 46 event rooms, conference rooms and business suites of various size and partitionable flexibility with state-of-the-art equipment.
